

IfL: strategic priorities 2009-14

- Raise the status and professional standing of teachers, trainers and assessors
- Increase the voice and influence of members on national policies
- Offer a range of benefits that will support Members in their professional roles

- CPD the hallmark of the professional
- CPD vital for strengthening a dual professionalism
- Professionals keep up to date with the latest developments, knowledge, technologies and research in subject area and teaching methods

CPD could consist of any activity undertaken for the purposes of updating knowledge and/or developing teaching/training skills as long as the member asks these questions...

- have I reflected on my learning from this activity?
- has it made a difference to my practice?
- has there been an impact on my learners or others?

...and shows evidence of how the activity has made a difference

A dual professionalism

Declarations submitted online by 31 August every year

Declarations are monitored for completion of CPD
(September)

Some members are asked to produce evidence for a sample audit (October)

A report on the audit published (December)

Renewals of membership (April)

- Government and the new professionalism (Cabinet Office – Excellence and Fairness)
- Ofsted and peer review (How Colleges Improve)
- LSIS priorities and self regulation
- Collaboration with other national agencies – professionalising UK PLC
